

There's more to communication

Frontline Sign Language

Lancashire Deaf Service is offering Frontline British Sign Language (BSL) courses for all frontline staff who meet people every day. This course will give you the basic tools and awareness in communicating with not only Deaf people but also people from all walks of life: your clients.

Good communication skills are a sign of quality and professionalism, and will create a sense of trust between your client and yourself.

Lancashire
Deaf Service

Towards Social Inclusion

Enquiries

email: training@elds.org.uk

tel: 01772 250117